

Adam D.H. Grant

Adam D.H. Grant, a shareholder at Grant | Shenon, blends a passion for extreme sports with over 34 years of legal expertise in complex business disputes, mobile app law, digital privacy, embezzlement issues, construction law, and real estate matters. As a 13-time Ironman finisher and 13th-place Ultraman World Championship contender, Adam's endurance and strategic acumen define his approach to law. He begins by deeply understanding his clients' stories, weaving their backgrounds and aspirations into a tailored legal strategy aimed at optimal outcomes. Adam's adept navigation of litigation, combined with a commitment to client education and empowerment, distinguishes him as a trusted advisor and advocate. His clients often find lasting friendships beyond their legal matters, testament to his holistic and compassionate approach.
