

Jennifer Johnston Terando, R.N., Esq.

Law & Mediation Office of Jennifer Johnston Terando
23371 Mulholland Drive #456 Woodland Hills, CA 91364 | 818-854-5892 | jennifer@jjthehealthlaw.com

Objective

Mediator and Nurse-Attorney with solid experience in medical-legal and health law litigation. Strong understanding of healthcare industry and medical-legal cases. Detail-oriented and results driven, resulting in excellent relationships with satisfied clients.

Education

Doctor of law (J.D.) | May 2000 | Case Western Reserve University

- Certificate in Health Law: CWRU Law-Medicine Center
- Hahn, Loeser, & Parks academic scholarship.
- Associate Editor: Health Matrix: Journal of Law-Medicine

Bachelor Of Science in Nursing cum laude /May 1997| Frances Payne Bolton School of Nursing at Case Western Reserve University

- Minor: psychology
- Bolton Academic Scholar

Mediation Training

- LACBA: Forty-Hour Mediation Training
- Pepperdine Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution intensive: Mediating the Litigated Case
- Southern California Mediation Association: Mentorship Program
- 2021 Fellow in Dispute Resolution (mediation), American Bar Association, DR section
- Zoom-Certified Mediator, Mediation Center of Los Angeles

Professional Licenses:

California Attorney 212617

Illinois Attorney (inactive) 6281881

California Registered Nurse 566129

Experience

LAW & MEDIATION OFFICE OF JENNIFER JOHNSTON TERANDO, R.N., ESQ. | JAN. 2012---
PRESENT Utilizing combined legal and nursing education, training and experience to provide legal and mediation services in a range of areas involving medical-legal issues, including personal injury and: review and negotiation of physician and healthcare provider employment contracts. Mediator, since 2019. In addition to private practice mediations, am also a member of the following mediation panels: Mediation Center of Los Angeles, American Health Law and Center for Conflict Resolution (volunteer.)

NURSE---ATTORNEY| KREINDLER & KREINDLER LLP| JAN. 2008---NOV. 2011

Nurse Attorney: used medical-legal expertise to work up aviation/product-liability/personal-injury cases from inception through settlement/trial. Developed medical-legal theories in multimillion-dollar cases. Published Articles in Los Angeles Lawyer and Advocate. Recipient of CAALA President's Award of Merit.

NURSE---ATTORNEY| WILDMAN, HARROLD, ALLEN, DIXON LLP | NOV. 2004---OCT. 2007 & LAFOLLETTE, JOHNSON, DEHAAS, FESLER & AMES/MURPHY PEARSON, BRADLEY & FEENEY | JAN. 2001---AUGUST 2004

Nurse Attorney: Utilized medical-legal expertise to represent physicians, medical groups, hospitals, dialysis centers and other health care entities in professional negligence claims from inception through settlement/trial, including Discovery, mediation and trial. Advised clients on health law and policies and procedures to assure compliance with relevant laws and reduce exposure to litigation. Lead associate representing a Fortune 500 company in multi-party complex toxic tort litigation.

Professional Organizations:

Southern California Mediation Association: 2023 President (Past positions: President-Elect, Board Member & Chair of Programs Committee)

Women Lawyers Association of Los Angeles

Recent Speaking Engagements:

- Multiple speaking engagements to physician residency programs, regarding employment contracts
- April 1, 2023, Guest on KBLA Legal Lens with Angela Reddock Wright: Lawsuit Mediation and Conflict Resolution Trends.
- September 17, 2020: Faculty, NBI Webinar, Acing the Medical Chronology
- April 1, 2020: Faculty, NBI Webinar: Electronic Health Records: Understanding Standard of Care Violations and Alterations

Volunteer Work:

Girl Scout troop treasurer/active in children's school.

Personal:

Married to John Terando, M.D. Three children ages: 15, 12, and 9.